He has been chair of the AEA Committee on Electronic Publishing, a member of the AEA Committee on Economic Education. He is married to a pediatrician, Patrice. In their spare time, the Colanders designed and built an oak post-and-beam house on a ridge overlooking the Green Mountains to the east and the Adirondacks to the west. The house is located on the site of a former drive-in movie theater. (They replaced the speaker poles with fruit trees and used the I-beams from the screen as support for the second story of the carriage house and the garage.) They now live in both Florida and Vermont. McGraw-Hill (MHP) boosted its dividend by 10% and said it would buy back more stock. The New York publisher will pay an 18.15-cent quarterly dividend March 10 to holders of record Feb. 24. McGraw-Hill had previously paid 16.5 cents. The buyback plan calls for the company to buy back as many as 45 million shares, including 15 million this year. The company said the buyback authority covers 12% of its outstanding stock. "Our Board of Directors' actions demonstrate The McGraw-Hill Companies' commitment to maximizing shareholder value and total shareholder return," said CEO Harold McGraw III. "Our portfolio of market-leading businesses continues to perform extremely well, and since 1996 we have returned more than $4.1 billion to shareholders -- including approximately $924 million in 2005 -- through share repurchases and increased dividends."
